Dear Friends,

What an extraordinary year! Thank you to our patients, and those who care about them, for the privilege of providing life-enhancing services to help them live their best life every day.

Thanks to our staff, we provided uninterrupted care to all patients, families, and clients throughout the pandemic. Our teams engaged them in innovative ways, including telemedicine, online counseling and support groups, and virtual music therapy.

As a local, not-for-profit provider, we are grateful to our donors and volunteers whose gifts ensure that Samaritan continues to provide life-enhancing care for the most vulnerable people – right here in our South Jersey community.

At Samaritan, we honor every person’s culture, values, and wishes by respecting who they are and what matters most to them. Through our connections to each other, those we serve, our community, and world, we strive to provide equitable access to care and opportunities.

We remain guided by the ethic of human service to be the region’s preferred provider of life-enhancing care and lead the advancement of coordinated, person-centered care with extraordinary compassion and expertise. That’s how we put more love in the world!

With gratitude,

Community Education and Outreach
Through our Institute for Education, Research & Innovation, we educate the community on topics such as advanced directive planning, hospice care, palliative medicine, and grief.

Our goal is to help people better understand these topics and increase access to services should they become seriously ill.

During the pandemic, we continued to provide education through online platforms.

For example, Dr. Stephen Goldfine, our medical director, spoke on “Impact of COVID-19 on Medical Decision Making” in partnership with Dr. David Barile, founder and chief medical officer of the Goals of Care Coalition of New Jersey. Through this free webinar, Dr. Goldfine and Dr. Barile educated 105 family caregivers about the importance of documenting their healthcare wishes.
